Mismanagement of the affairs of the Arippalam Co-operative Society.

250. Mr. M. A. Chakko.—Will the Government be pleased to state with reference to the proceedings of the Registrar of Co-operative Societies published in Part II of the Cochin Government Gazette, dated 28th Kanni 1109—

(1) when was it clearly known that the Arippalam Co-operative Society was being mismanaged for a pretty long time and that the members in general had lost their enthusiasm in its working;

(2) what is the length of time for which the mismanagement has existed when the clear knowledge of it dawned upon the Registrar;

(3) what is the length of time that the members in general ceased to have enthusiasm in its working (dates may be given to indicate the period);

(4) what was the nature of the mismanagement referred to in the proceedings;

(5) did any of the members petition the Registrar of Co-operative Societies or the Diwan at any time about the mismanagement;

(6) did the Registrar or the Government institute any enquiry about the allegations contained in the petition;

(7) what was the nature of the enquiry and by whom and what was the result;

(8) will the Government be pleased to give in print a copy of the petition or petitions received from the members as well as the report of the officer who conducted the enquiry;

(9) were the petitioners given any reply or Memorandum to intimate to them the result of the enquiry?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—(1) The society has been declining for 5 or 6 years back. Several remedial measures were tried. When it was found that the society did not improve, its registration was cancelled.

(2) Vide answer to sub-section 1.

(3) The working of the society was found to decline 5 or 6 years back and from that date, the enthusiasm of the members in general had begun to wane. It is not possible to give the
